

19th Congress of the European Society for Organ Transplantation.
A Hansa Biopharma-sponsored satellite symposium.

Management of highly sensitised kidney transplant candidates: current and future approaches

Tuesday 17th September 2019, 17:00–18:30
Room C1M1, Bella Center, Ørestad

This event is for healthcare professionals only

Session	Speaker
17:00–17:05 Co-Chair welcome and introduction	Alexandre Loupy, Necker Hospital, Paris, France Torbjörn Lundgren, Karolinska University Hospital, Stockholm, Sweden
17:05–17:25 Improving access for the highly sensitised candidate: current opportunities and on-going challenges	Oriol Bestard, Bellvitge University Hospital, Barcelona, Spain
17:25–17:40 Transplanting the highly sensitised candidate: current approaches to desensitisation	Carmen Lefaucheur, Saint-Louis Hospital-APHP, Paris, France
17:40–17:55 Mitigating antibody-mediated rejection in the highly sensitised candidate: identification & treatment	Farsad Eskandary, Medical University of Vienna, Austria
17:55–18:10 Novel approaches and future goals for transplanting the highly sensitised candidate	Nizam Mamode, Guy's and St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust, London, UK
18:10–18:25 Chaired panel discussion
18:25–18:30 Co-Chair summary and conclusions	Alexandre Loupy and Torbjörn Lundgren